York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office Investigates:

Business Robbery

Yorktown, VA – The Advance Auto in the 2800 block of Hampton Highway was robbed by two subjects. The robbery occurred on 6/20/05, at approximately 3:11pm., 2 males armed with handguns entered the store and robbed the clerks of an undisclosed amount of cash. The suspects were last seen leaving out of the back door to the business. The suspects are described as follows:

B/M, 6'1", 165 lbs, and 20-25 years old, wearing dark color jeans (baggy), dark color shirt and a dark color durag on his head. He had a camouflage color scarf covering his face.

B/M, 5'10", 160 lbs, 17-22 years old, wearing dark in color t-shirt and jeans. Dark color durag covering his face with eyeholes cut out.

Investigators spoke to witnesses at the scene and two vehicles were seen in the area that were suspicious. Investigators are not sure if these vehicles are related to this robbery or not. The vehicle descriptions are a light blue Neon with wide white stripes across the bottom of the vehicle and a White Mazda 626 or 929.

The Sheriff's Office is still investigating this case and has not ruled out the possibility that this robbery may be related to a Robbery at the Auto Zone on 6/9/05.
